BIOGRAPHY

Dawn Womack blends sharp observational humor with a natural warmth that makes every audience feel instantly connected. She has performed coast to coast, appearing on Don't Tell Comedy, headlining the inaugural Battlers Knob Comedy Festival, performing at Roanoke Comedy Festival and Rivers Casino, and taking the stage in theaters, wineries, breweries — and even inside caves at the annual Cave Comedy Fest.

She has shared stages with national touring headliners and founded Cave Comedy Fest, Virginia's only comedy festival held inside a live cavern at Melrose Caverns.

Dawn produces FWAFF Shows and performs weekly at the Massanutten Resort Comedy Club through her production company, The Funny Womacks, LLC. She teaches stand-up comedy classes and is the founder and former host of the 4-year weekly podcast Virginia Is For Laughters, now preserved as a Podcast Legacy.
