BIOGRAPHY

The Funny Womacks are a husband-and-wife stand-up comedy duo known for their sharp wit, smart storytelling, and effortless on-stage chemistry. Together, Dawn and Chris deliver a dynamic blend of observational humor — pairing Dawn’s warm, connective style with Chris’ dry, precision-driven edge.

They perform as a flexible co-headlining act, offering formats ranging from a tight 30-minute duo set to extended 75-minute shows combining individual solo sets with a high-energy closing duo performance. Their adaptable structure makes them an ideal fit for theaters, resorts, private events, and corporate audiences.

Individually, both have appeared on Don’t Tell Comedy and performed at regional festivals and clubs throughout the Mid-Atlantic. Together, they perform weekly at the Massanutten Resort Comedy Club and are founders of The Funny Womacks, LLC, a production company dedicated to bringing professional pop up stand-up comedy shows to a variety of venues.

Whether performing solo or side by side, The Funny Womacks deliver a polished, high-energy show built on chemistry, timing, and genuine audience connection. They are available for clubs, theaters, resorts, corporate events, festivals and private bookings nationwide.
